MULTI-METHOD PEALS.

The recent achievement by the band at Norbury, Cheshire, of a peal of Minor in thirty methods within the compass of seven true extents, has served to stimulate interest in multi-method peals, and we hope it may be the means of many more bands taking up the practice of spliced method ringing. It is more than ten years ago since this form of Minor extents was introduced, although, probably owing to the innate conservatism of ringers, very few bands have followed up the idea. Certainly no company has exploited the scheme as much as the Norbury men, whose success merits the warmest congratulation of the Exercise. It has hitherto been adjudged a hall mark of competency in Minor ringing to ring a peal in seven methods, and many ringers who have done this imagine they have reached nearly, if not quite, the top of the tree. But the Norbury peal proves that there is vast room for an advance, and we doubt, even, whether any peal in any one method on any number of tower bells can be said to surpass it.

It means that on an average no more than 168 changes are rung in each method, but the number of shunts from one method to another is far more than thirty, for a return may be made to a method two or three times in the course of a 720. One needs sharp wits and a more than passing acquaintance with the methods themselves for gymnastics of this kind, and it must not only invest Minor ringing, as Mr. Fernley pointed out last week, with considerable additional interest, but make it infinitely more difficult as well as entertaining. For instance, consider this as a four method extent; one lead of Wragby; three leads of Grove; two leads of Neasden; five leads of College Bob; three leads of Wragby; two leads of Grove; five leads of Neasden; three leads of College Bob; two leads of Wragby and four leads of Grove. There you have ten changes of method, and when it is remembered that seven such extents were rung and that each extent-was a combination of different methods, it will be realised that the Norbury ringers' performance was of extraordinary merit.

We do not, however, look upon even this as the final word in this kind of peal, but we should like to see it the beginning of a much wider practice of spliced-method peals. In the same way we do not look upon the recent achievement of the Cambridge University Guild in ringing a peal in three Major methods as in any sense a "freak" performance, but probably only the forerunner of many varieties of multi-method peals on eight bells. There are, we believe, greater difficulties at the moment in providing true peals of Major on the multi-method plan than there are in Minor; but this obstacle, we imagine, will largely disappear when the Major methods have been explored and published in the same exhaustive manner as the Minor. At present the choice of Major methods is extremely limited, whereas the possibilities are vast, and we believe the time will come when we shall see peals of Major rung in almost, if not quite, as many methods as is now possible in peals of Minor.

THE SUFFOLK CONTROVERSY.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—It is a relief to find that Mr. Burton at last sees the danger of the yawning gulf lying before him and Mr. Coleman. But he must not say that it is I who accuse the latter of forgery. It would not at all suit my argument to make out these my very good friends to be criminals! What I have shown is that they have made a blunder, because being in Norfolk, they do not understand the position in Suffolk. But it now appears that they also do not understand the difference between a signature and an endorsement. sign what is your own: you endorse what is another's-in order to show that, even if you do not agree with it, you will support it.

Now Mr. Burton, in your issue of Feb. 2nd, and Mr. Coleman in that of Nov. 17th, say that I both endorsed and signed a certain document. In your issue of Nov. 24th, I pointed out that it is impossible ment. In your issue of Nov. 24th, I pointed out that it is impossible and contradictory for both these words to apply to a name written only once. They must decide which of these two opposite lines they are going to take. Mr. Burton says this document is a letter. But in your issue of Nov. 17th it is entitled 'Copy of Memorandum'—another contradiction. In the middle of it, is a starred note by Mr. Fawcett, which proves that Mr. Burton has blundered again in saying that the whole of it is his. Mr. Fawcett is evidently criticising Mr. Coleman's memorandum, which he has copied out verbatim. So that our statement, that the document was composed by Mr. Coleman that our statement that the document was composed by Mr. Coleman clear that the document is not mine, which is all that I need to prove. How, then, has it got the word '(Signed)' inserted before my name? Most certainly this was not there when I'wrote my name

Another blunder of Mr. Burton's is when he says ' Mr. Drake has once had the temerity to ask how his signature got there.' My actual words (Nov. 24th) were: 'What right has Mr. Coleman to let my name appear unreservedly, when I attached lengthy reservations to it?' To this serious question I have received no reply. To this serious question I have received no reply,

Mr. Burton may say that he was referring to my words in the next paragraph: 'Why, then, is my signature put at the foot, when I never attached my name to it?' But this would be a double blunder. First he has introduced the words 'got there,' entirely altering the meaning: also if he looks at my letter he will see that the word it,' grammatically refers (not to the memorandum at all) but to Mr. Fawceit's starred note. I was asking why is my 'signature' at-Mr. Fawcett's starred note. I was asking why is my 'signature' attached to Mr. Fawcett's starred note. Am I not abundantly justified in calling the document 'tinkered'?

These seem enough blunders in one short letter (all of them easily verified by anyone who compares the three issues of the 'Ringing World'): but there is still the most fatal blunder of all. When Mr. Fawcett and I had gone to the trouble of endorsing Mr. Coleman's proposals, why, oh why, did Mr. Coleman (with Mr. Burton) use this loyal support of himself to illegally turn us out of the committee? NORWICH, ST. EDMUNDSBURY & IPSWICH ASSOCIATION

A meeting of the St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich Branch was held at Saxmundham on Saturday, when there was a fair attendance. At the business meeting Mr. C. E. Fisher occupied the chair.

A discussion took place as to the best way to hold the annual general meeting for election of officers for the branch in place of some who had left the county. Eventually it was decided that the some who had left the county. Eventually it was decided that the annual general meeting be held at Ipswich on Easter Monday, Mr. G. Wilson (Leiston) consenting to act as secretary pro tem., and make arrangements for the meeting. Once again the members were disappointed, as they were refused the use of Kelsale bells, and ringing DAVID MAXON, Rope Works, Grantham. methods from Plain Bob to London Surprise Minor. was confined to Saxmundham six, where good touches were rung in

PRESTEIGN AND LEOMINSTER DISTRICT.

The annual meeting was held at Leominster on Feb. 3rd. Ringing commenced at 3.30, and a shorr service was held, the Vicar (the Rev. R. Gillenders) officiating, twenty members teing present, including four from the Ludlow district. An excellent tea awaited the company at the Etman Street Cafe. The business meeting followed, Vicar presiding.

The accounts for the year were passed as satisfactory, showing a balance in hand of £8.

The officials were all re-elected for the year. Three members from Staunton-on-Arrow, one hon, member and six probationers from Stoke Prior, and seven probationers from Old Raduor, were elected, there being now only one eight-bell and one six-bell tower in the district that are not members of the Cuild. that are not members of the Guild.

It was decided to accept the invitation from the Vicer of Kimbolton for the next quarterly meeting.

A vote of thanks was accorded the Vicar for the use of the bells, for his address, and for presiding at the meeting .- The Vicar, in reply, said it gave him great pleasure to welcome the members to Leominster for the annual meeting,

BARROW VETERAN'S DEATH.

THE DAYS OF 'BETSY BAKER.' At the age of 76 years, Mr. Tom Gibbons, of Barrow-in-Furness, has passed away. He was born at Market Rasen, Lincolnshire, and there, at an early age, he learned to ring. At first there was only round ringing, and call changes designated by such names as 'Betsy Baker' and 'Candlestick Maker,' but about 45 years ago a Norfolk ringer came to the church as verger and caretaker, and introduced change ringing. The band made excellent progress, and soon could ring change ringing. The band made excellent progress, and soon could ring several Minor methods, a date touch being rung in three methods in 1878. Mr. Gibbons rang in a number of Lincolnshire towers, and also became a member of the College Youths. He went to reside at Barrow about 25 years ago, and joined the St. James' Society, of which for some time he acted as secretary.

Only recently Mr. Gibbons wrote an entertaining pamphlet upon his ringing experiences, and it is full of amusing reminiscences. The widow, Mrs. Gibbons, has a number of copies remaining, and they can be obtained on application to her at 87. Ferry Road, Barrow-in-Furness. The price is sixpence, and ringers will be performing an act of kindness, as well as acquiring an entertaining little booxlet, by

ROMNEY MARSH GUILD.

A SUCCESSFUL YEAR.

The 22nd annual meeting of the above Guild was held at Mersham G. Brocklehurstl, Mr. W. E. Pitman, Mus. Bac., presiding at the organ.—The Rector gave a very helpful and instructive address, which was greatly appreciated by the members present. Tea was served at the Farriers' Arms, the Rector presiding. This was followed by the business meeting.—The Secretary's report showed the Guild to be in a flourishing state, both numerically and financially, and that the twelve monthly meetings had been well attended.—The Rector was duly elected president of the Guild for the year. Mr. H. Balcomb was re-elected secretary, and Mr. W. C. Everett, Master of the Guild. Both were accorded a hearty vote of thanks for their past services and hoth returned thanks for their past services, and both returned thanks for their re-election.

One honorary member and six ringing members were duly elected and the next meeting proposed to be held at Appledore on Saturday, Feb. 17th.

A hearty vote of thanks was accorded the Rector for his permission to hold the meeting, for the service and address, and for presiding at the tea and meeting.-This was carried with acclamation. and the Rector replied.-The Master then occupied the chair, and a very pleasant social evening was spent with songs, recitations, and change ringing, and tunes on the handbells. Chief Engineer Finn's wireless was out of order, or arrangements for broadcasting would have been made.

FUNERAL OF MR. G. WOODISS.

The ringers who attended the funeral of Mr. George Woodiss, at Twickenham on Jan. 30th, were Mr. T. Beadle, Mr. F. Goddard and Mr. E. V. Beadle.

Mr. E. V. Beadle.

The deceased, who was a signalman on the L. and S.W. Railway, was actively interested in various Twickenham organisations, representatives of which were present at the last sad rites. About 30 of his railway colleagues preceded the cortege from the house to the cemetery, and signalmen acted as hearers. St. Peter's bell ringers, Hersham, sent a wreath.

READING BRANCH.

On Saturday, Feb. 3rd, the Reading Branch held a very successful annual meeting at Reading. The following towers were represented: St. Lawrence's, St. Mary's and St. Giles', Reading: Caversham, Tileburst, Henley, Purley, Mortimer and Checkendon.
Tcuches of Grandsire and Stedman, etc., were rung at St. Lawrence's, St. Mary's and St. Giles' during the afternoon, and a short service was held at St. Lawrence's Church, at which the Rev. O. W. O. Jenkyn (the Master) officiated, an address being given by the Rev. C. H. Coles

An excellent 'knife and fork 'tea was served at the Central Cafe, and at the business meeting which followed Mr. W. Pole-Routh presided, and 85 members were present, this being a record number.

The balance sheet, showing a balance of more than £10 in hand (the largest ever known in the district), was passed, and the officers re-elected as follows: Chairman, Mr. W. Pole-Routh; vice-chairman, Mr. A. W. Pike; secretary, Mr. F. W. Hopgood; auditors, Messrs, Wiggins and Foster; committee of the general Guild, J. Swain, H. Goodger, W. Appleby and H. Tucker.

A splendid musical programme was then enjoyed. pianoforte and songs were warmly encored, but Mr. Treleaven, the ventriloquist, 'brought the house down' Miss H. Tucker kindly accompanied on the piano. It was unanimously agreed that a most enjoyable evening had been spent.

VETERAN YORKSHIRE RINGER'S DEATH.

Many ringers will hear with regret that the Armley band has sustained another loss by the death of Mr. Pollard Whiteley in his 71st year. He passed away on Sunday, Feb. 4th. He was for many years a member of the Halifax Parish Church company, and for the last six years has been a member at Armley. He was also secretary to the band until recently.

A service took place at Christ Church on Wednesday, Feb. 7th, conducted by the Rev. T. Goodchild, and was attended by the deceased's ringing friends and the churchwardens. The coffin was afterwards taken by motor to Halifax to be interred the following day. A short touch of Kent Treble Bob Minor was rung with the bells half-muffled after service by the Armley ringers as a last token of IRISH ASSOCIATION'S PRESIDENT DEAD.

We deeply regret to announce that Mr. R. R. Cherry, K.C., president of the Irish Association of Change Ringers, who was Lord Chief Justice of Ireland from 1914 to 1916, died in Dublin on Saturday.

A native of Waterford, he was a son of Mr. R. W. Cherry, solicitor. He graduated at T.C.D., was called to the Irish Bar, 1881, took silk 1896, was Attorney-General 1905-9, and was elevated to the Bench as Lord Justice of Appeal in 1909, in succession to the late Lord Justice FitzGibbon. In 1914 he became Lord Chief Justice. On his appointment as Attorney-General he was presented with the freedom of his native city, and in 1906 was created a P.C.

The late Lord Chief Justice had a very distinguished and honourable career. He was a double Gold Medallist in Mental Science and History and Political Science and First Scholar in International Law. Middle Temple, London. He was examiner in Political Economy for the Indian Civil Service, 1885-89; and Professor of Constitutional and Criminal Law in the University of Dublin, 1889-94.

It was in the Irish Land Courts that the late Chief Justice was best known. He published (with his colleague and friend, Judge Wakely) the 'Irish Land Act and Land Purchase Act,' which promptly became a standard work on land legislation. On going to the Bar he went to the Leinster Circuit, and he was soon amougst the Circuit leaders, figuring in all important cases. His practice in Dublin was chiefly in the Land Courts, but he was frequently seen in the Chancery and Common Law Divisions.

After unsuccessfully contesting the Kirkdale Division of Liverpool in After districted the Liberal interest, Mr. Cherry was returned for the Exchange Division of the same city in 1905, and was soon after appointed Attorney-General for Ircland. He was elevated to the Bench as Lord Justice of Appeal in 1909. While Attorney-General he was active in repressing cattle driving.

Since 1916 he was a confirmed invalid, and was unable to continue active work, much to the regret of his colleagues on the Bench and at the Bar.

Mr. Cherry was devoted to bell ringing, and when in Dublin was to be found in his place in St. Patrick's Cathedral ringing for Sunday service. He took an active interest in the affairs of the Irish Association and rang several peals. Only a few weeks ago his son, who has also taken up ringing, scored his first peal.

JAMES MOTTS: AN APRECIATION.

By CHARLES E. BORRETT,

May I be allowed to add a few lines as a supplement to the memoir in your last issue, and also to that part of your very appreciative leader referring to the passing of James Motte?

You, Mr. Editor, describe him as 'one of the outstanding figures of our craft.' I think he was the outstanding figure, for to my mind there has been no ringer like him in any age since change ringing

Consider conditions. In Ipswich, until 1899, save rings of six and five, there was only the twelve at St. Mary-le-Tower Church. In 1899 St. Margaret's were increased to eight, and so the numbers remain to-day. James Motts' ringing career in the town of his adop-tion occupied 39 years—from 1882 to 1921—and only one twelve and tion occupied 39 years—from 1862 to 1921—and only one twelve and one eight at home, and not a great many other eights in a 10-mile radius. Suffolk is largely agricultural, and railways in such counties are not particularly helpful, for late trains are unknown. I wonder how many miles Jimmy pushed his old 52-inch ordinary, and afterwards a safety bicycle, in the pursuit of his hobby? Even the day they scored the 16,608 at Debenham he rode the fourteen miles from Ipswich on his 52-inch!

Norwich was the nearest 12-until the advent of Yarmouth, Chelmsford and Saffron Walden—and any of them meant a long day's outing if a peal was attempted. Then, too, Ipswich is a comparatively small provincial town, and thus more difficult to create and maintain a crack company in, than in great centres of population where there is more inducement for ringers to converge. There were other prominent men in the Tower Society during all these years, but it is no disloyalty to the others to say there say the.
Motis. was only one real leader, and that was James Motts. To lead a fine progressive band for 39 years, and to have the respect of all! Is not that an outstanding achievement? And let there be no mistake-it is ten times harder successfully to lead a 12-bell band than an eight. I could write much more in support of my claim, but will pass on to the finest thing of all about Jimmy-his great modesty and absolute lack of all bluster or bounce. In spite of great achievements he was quite unspoiled, and would help any one who asked. I wonder if we shall ever again see the like of the two brothers? They were greatly attached, these two, in their plain homely way. Both were bachelors, and both equally quiet and unassertive—James by nature the leader, and William one of the safest of ringers and most lovable of men. James Motts was so great a conductor that his ability as a composer is likely to he overlooked, but he had compositions in all the standard methods, although he himself did not slavishly use them.

I do not know if he kept a peal book, but I have dissected his record for our association. In doing so I came across a curious error. Peal totals were published next members' names, for the first time in our 1890 report, and in that list James Motts is given 93 tower and 35 handbell peals. This should have been 83 and 25 respectively, and, of course, this mistake has been repeated every year since. The proper totals should, therefore, be 530 tower and 29 handhell peals. I am unable to estimate the number rung for other societies. There were a good many, I believe, for the Essex Association, and one in particular pointed out last week—the record London for the St. Martin's Guild. Below are particulars of the 559 Norwick peals—no less than 93 below are particulars of the 559 Norwich peals—no less than 95 of them on twelve bells and in seven methods!

James Motts then, I say, occupies the foremost place amongst our great ones who have gone. May those who follow try and copy his great example! My sympathy goes out to those of his comrades whom I always affectionately think of as 'the old brigade,' who helped in these great performances. Only three remain amongst our Ipswich members-Edgar Femberton, Robert Brundle and William Garrett, and the first named is now unable to ring. I must apologise for the length of this appreciation, but my respect and admiration for a great ringer must be my excuse. Farewell, Jimmy!

BIRTHDAY GATHERING AT TONG.

LOCAL RINGERS' LONG SERVICE.

To celebrate the 71st birthday on Feb. 2nd of Mr. G. Bolland, of Tong, Yorks, the company of St. James' Church rang a peal of Minor (recorded elsewhere), and Mr. Bolland afterwards entertained a few of his friends to supper at the village inn.

The Vicar (the Rev. A. G. Seymour) joined the festive board, and, after an enjoyable repast, expressed his pleasure at being able to attend the gathering, illness having prevented him last year.

Mr. Seymour, in alluding to the traditions of the Tong company, added that he would be pleased to further any effort to carry them onwards, and trusted recruits would come forward for that purpose. He made an appeal to all ringers to attend the service, after summoning others to do so. He offered his good wishes to Mr. Bolland (his churchwarden), and trusted he would be spared for many years yet amongst them,

Mr. T. Maude supported the Vicar's good wishes, and Mr. Bolland's health was drunk with enthusiasm.—Replying in his usual characteristic and breezy manner, Mr. Bolland hinted that he would be well pleased to see the clergy everywhere take a personal interest in bells and belfry, as the latter in some places he had visited needed it.

A notable fact in connection with the present company who took part in the peal is their length of service, viz., Mr. G. Bolland, 54 years: Mr. W. Bolland, 50 years: Mr. S. Oddy, 45 years: Mr. C. Sallaway, 45 years; Mr. E. Oddy, 31 years: Mr. G. Lambert, 30 years, a total of 255 years. Mr. Wm. Bolland is now in his 75th year, and rang his previous peal at Bramley (Leeds) on the occasion of the death of King Edward.

DEDICATION OF LAMBETH BELLS.

WHITECHAPEL FOUNDRY'S 350 YEARS' CONNECTION WITH THE PEAL.

At a most impressive service on Friday week, the Bishop of Southwark dedicated the restored ring of bells at the Church of St. Mary, We have already given some particulars about the bells the restoration having consisted of recasting the treble, 2nd, 4th, 5th, 7th and tenor, which were cracked, and the rehanging of the whole octave with new gudgeons and bearings. The cracking of the bells was due to the old 'cast in' crown staples, which are a frequent cause of this kind of damage. The old framework was found to be in splendid condition, after 200 years' service. It is made of heavy section timbers, and of very good construction. The existing headstocks and wheels were of comparatively modern make, and were brought into use again.

The service was attended by a large congregation, and the Bishop, after dedicating the bells, which were heard for the first time during the ceremony, preached an exceedingly interesting sermon. He dealt with the great age of the bells in the tower, viz., over 400 years, and mentioned important historical occasions on which they must have been rung. He also dealt with the effect of church bells on history, architecture and poetry, instancing, in history, the threat by the people of Florence to the King of France to ring their bells if the terms of a certain treaty were forced, which would have the effect of turning every house in the place into a miniature fortress with disastrous effects to the enemy forces. On architecture, the effect of bells had made it necessary to build fine lofty and massive towers, and gave scope for the various styles in architecture. In poetry, the Bishop mentioned several famous passages by renowned poets dealing with bells.

After the sermon, and during the singing of appropriate hymns, a parish procession took place, the Bishop and clergy, church officials, the architect (Mr. Forsyth), the founders (represented by Mr. A. A. Hughes, with whom was Mr. Alan Macdonald), the builder (Mr. Samson) being followed by the scouts, guides, school children and teachers, members of parochial organisations, the ringers, sidesmen, and Church Council. The procession passed down the nave, up the porth side west the place the procession passed down the nave, up the north aisle, past the altar, through the side chapel and south aisle, up the nave and through the sanctuary. The service concluded with the Te Deum and the Blessing, pronounced by the Bishop.

There was little time left for ringing afterwards, but all who fried the bells, which now constitute a very fine peal, were delighted with their 'go,' and Messrs, Mears and Stainbank are to be congratulated upon the excellence of their work. Their connection with Lambeth bells, as has already been mentioned, goes back 350 years.

BOLSOVER RINGER'S DEATH.

RESULT OF A COLLIERY ACCIDENT.

In the death of Mr. Frank Wagstaff, Bolsover, loses one of its best and most regular Sunday Service ringers. The deceased met with an accident on Saturday, January 27th, at the Bolsover Colliery. He was admitted into the Chesterfield Hospital, and died on January 31st, after an operation. Mr. Wagstaff commenced to pull a bell 31 years ago, and has been one of the most regular service ringers during that time. He was not a great peal ringer, having rung about a dozen peals of Minor and Major, but he could always be relied upon for Sunday. He was one of the mainstays of the band in getting the peal of six increased to eight 20 years ago, when the scheme was opposed by church officials and many others. A native of Bolsover, and greatly respected by all, he was carried to his last resting-place by six of the local ringers. He leaves a widow and adopted daughter to mourn for him. The bells were rung half-muffled to a peal of 5,408 Kent Treble Bob.

ESSEX ASSOCIATION.

A meeting of the South-Eastern division was held at Boreham on Saturday, January 27th. Service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. A. E. Hall). A splendid tea was provided in the Parish Hall by Lady Curtis Bennett, and other ladies.

At the business meeting, a vote of thanks was passed to them for providing such an excellent tea.—In responding. Lady Curtis Bennett said they would be pleased to do it again the next time the ringers visited Boreham.

Miss M. C. Hulton was elected an honorary life member, and Mr. C. Pilkington and Mr. H. H. Wheaton were elected honorary members.

It was decided to hold the next meeting at Burnham-on-Crouch with a view to getting this tower into the association.

Votes of thanks were passed to the Vicar for the use of the bells. and the organist for helping the service.

A vote of condolence was passed with Miss Hulton on the death of the Rev. Canon Hulton, who was an honorary member of the as-Touches and tunes were afterwards rung on the handbells. and other members returned to the tower for further ringing.

GLOUCESTER AND BRISTOL DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION.

FROPOSED BELFRY REPAIR FUND.

The annual meeting of the Bristol Branch of the above association was held at St. Thomas's, City, on Saturday, January 17th. The bells of St. Philip's and St. Thomas's were open for ringing in the afternoon. Service, which was choral, was held at St. Thomas's Church. The Rev. W. G. Bower (Vicar) and the Rev. W. Francis officiating, the Rev. W. G. Bower giving a very interesting and helpful address. Tea was arranged in the Church Room, and over 60 ringers and friends sat down.

After tea, Mr. H. T. Howell (Master) proposed a vote of thanks to the Vicar and friends of St. Thomas's for the very hearty wolcome, and said he was sorry to hear that the Vicar was leaving St. Thomas's to take up duties in Australia.

The Vicar, in replying, said it had been a very great pleasure to welcome the ringers to St. Thomas's, and was the means of carrying away with him many happy memories. He was also taking with him a form of the ringers' service, and hoped the time would come when he would have some bells at his church at Warrnambool, Australia.—As a farewell the party joined hands, sang 'Auld Lang Syne,' and wished the Vicar and Mrs. Bower ' bon voyage.'

Chairman, in giving a hearty welcome to visiting members Wells, Newport, Midsomer Norton and Weymouth, referred to the Belfry Repair Fund, and spoke of the poverty of some parishes where there was not sufficient money to maintain the belfry. suggested that 1s. per annum be paid by every member which would bring in £17 each half-year if taken up by all the members of the Gloucestershire and Bristol Association. There were many rings of six in the area that wanted rehanging. Some were unringable. If incumbents knew that the ringers were willing and anxious to help they would be stimulated to do their part.

Mr. W. A. Cave observed that they could not take action, but they could recommend the association to adopt the Central Council's re-commendation that a fund be started for repairs to bells and towers. He moved that .- The Rev. E. J. Phillips seconded the resolution, which was adopted.

Mr. P. C. Williams, hon, secretary, gave a brief report of the last ear. There had been fourteen meetings, which had been well attended. There had been admitted 10 associate members, 22 performing members, two life members, and two out-diocesan. balance sheet showed a credit balance of £11 15s, 6d.

The report and accounts were adopted.

The Chairman mentioned that he was elected to his present office in 1912, and most wonderful good fellowship had existed among them during that period. He praised the abilities and energy of the sceretary, and suggested that the ringers attend one service a Sunday. Having put in long service—his absences from meetings he could count on the fingers of one hand-he asked to be relieved of his post.

After a discussion the Rev. E. J. Phillips was chosen as his suc-essor.—The new Chairman, thanking the company for the honour, said he took great interest in ringing and in his own bells, and invited members to join in the inauguration of the ring of six which was soon to be made at his church (applause).

The meeting re-elected Mr. P. C. Williams hon, secretary; Mr. J. Gould was chosen representative on the Management Committee, and several members were elected. The dates and places of quarterly meetings were fixed as follows; St. Matthew's, Feb. 24th: Olyeston, May 12th: Coalpir Heath, Aug. 11th, and Clifton. Nov. 10th.—Votes of thanks to the ledges who provided the ten closed the proceedings. of thanks to the ladies who provided the tea closed the proceedings.

DEATH OF MR. JOSIAH PANTHER. LOSS TO WATH-ON-DEARNE BAND.

We deeply regret to record the death of Mr. Josiah Panther, of Wath-on-Dearne, Yorkshire. The deceased was a very old member of the Yorkshire Association, and a regular ringer of the above band for 50 years. He was also a chorister for 42 years. Although in his 76th year he was a very active ringer, and quite recently rang the 3rd at the Ecclesfield contest, in which his band obtained the third He had also a goodly number of peals to his credit.

The funeral took place at the Wath-on-Dearne Cemetery on Thursday, January 25th, and was attended by ringers from the district. A plain course of Oxford Treble Bob Minor was rung at the graveside by A. Nash (conductor) 1-2, J. Chamberlin 3-4, A. THE HEAVIEST PEAL.

The Heaviest Peal.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—In your last issue it is stated that Exeter Cathedral boasts of the heaviest tenor and the heaviest ringing peal in the world. The weight of the whole peal, including the extra 6th (112 cwt.) is 271 cwt. 3 qr. 7lb.; but the 12 at St. Paul's Cathedral, Loudon, weighs 27l cwt. 3 qr. 1 lb.; and, as only 12 can be rung at Exeter at any one time. I should say that St. Paul's Cathedral contains the heaviest ringing peal in the world. At any rate it is a heavier peal of 12.—Yours faithfully, CHAS H. KIPPIN.

HEREFORD DIOCESAN GUILD.

A very well attended and successful gathering was held at Bromyard, on Saturday. January 20th, ringers being present from Bredenbury, Bromyard, Whitbourne, Pencombe, Kimbolton, Berrington and The quarterly service was conducted by the Vicar, who afterwards most hospitably entertained the company to tea.

At the annual meeting, Mr. Alfred Tomkins, secretary and District Ringing Master, presented the accounts, which showed a balance of £4 13s. 9d. His report also showed that the number of ringing members of the district during 1922 was 25; but before the meeting closed the number was increased by the election of nine more (seven from Bromyard and two from Pencombe).

Mr. A. Tomkins was reappointed District Ringing Master and secretary for the ensuing year, and the following were elected members of the committee: Mr. Miles (Bromyard), Mr. W. Watkins (Bredenbury), Mr. C. Jones (Pencombe), and Mr. Caswell (Whitbourne). The number of ringing members is now 34, but the secretary pointed out that there was much room for improvement in the number of hon, members of the Guild. The Guild has done much to develop the science of hell ringing, and to raise the tone of service and fellowship in the ringing chambers of the church towers. The ministry of the bell ringers was a benefit to the whole community, and though it was a labour that ringers delighted in it called for a definite amount of sacrifice, and needed the guidance of ringing masters and instructors. It was hoped that the appeal of the secretary would produce good results, and that at the end of the year there may be a larger number of supporters who are willing to show their value and appreciation of bell ringing by becoming hon, mem-bers of the Diocesan Guild.

The meeting appointed Mr. C. Jones, Mr. Ranford, Mr. G. Soley and Mr. R. Bethell as official instructors to assist the District Ringing Master in teaching heginners.

Unfortunately Mr. C. Edwards, Ringing Master of the Diocese, was prevented from attending, and all regretted the absence, through illness, of Mr. Caswell.—Cordial thanks were offered to the Vicar for his hospitality and interest in the Guild, and the meeting then adtourned to the church tower, where the bells were kept going in Plain Bob, Oxford Bob Minor and Grandsire Doubles. This proved one of the best meetings held in the district.

The annual meeting of the Eastern Branch was held at Spilsby on The annual meeting of the Eastern Branch was held at Spilsby on Saturday, January 27th. As Spilsby lies almost at the northern extremity of the district, there was not a large number of ringers present, but nevertheless a very successful meeting was held, ringers attending from Boston, Skirbeck, Frieston, Butterwick, Benington, Old Leake, Wrangle, Surfleet, Stickney, and the local band. shortly be taking up his residence in Ramsey, Hunts. Mr. J. Phillips, of Butterwick, was unanimously elected to the office of hon.
secretary, and Mr. Arthur H. Palmer was unanimously re-elected Ringing Muster of the branch.

Swineshead was chosen for the quarterly meeting, held in April.—A hearty vote of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells and to Mr. Rupert Richardson for presiding concluded the business.

NORTHERN BRANCH PROPOSE REDUCTION OF SUBSCRIPTION.

SUBSCRIPTION.

The Grimsby district annual meeting of the above was held at Grimsby on January 27th. The bells of St. Andrew's and the Parish Church were rung in various methods, young ringers taking part. A service was held in the Parish Church, conducted by the Vicar (Canon A. A. Markham), who gave a suitable address. Mr. Harold Rusby presided at the organ. Tca at the Church House was enjoyed, and was followed by the business meeting, the Vicar taking the chair owing to the vice-president (the Rev. H. T. Parry) being called away. Places for meetings for the year were voted for, and a welcome was extended to the new Vicar of Ulceby (the Rev. Mr. Newton), who was elected, together with several new members.—Mr. Hoodless, of Barton, proposed a reduction in the fee for subscriptions on account of reduced wages, etc., and this resolution is to be forwarded to the committee.—Votes of thanks and ringing in the evening concluded a pleasant meeting. pleasant meeting, Hitherto Middleton's peal, with its five symmetrical parts, has been practically the only one available. Now Mr. Parker has given us another which, we imagine, will be welcomed by those to whom a change will commend itself.

WINCHESTER DIOCESAN GUILD.

GUILDFORD DISTRICT

A district meeting was held at Farnham on Saturday last, and was attended by ringers from Aldershot, Alton, Binsted, Cranleigh, Dorking, Godalming, Guildford, Haslemere, Scale, etc. The Guild scrvice was held in the church, conducted by the Rector (the Rev. A short business meeting followed.—The Ringing Master presented his report, and a hearty vote of thanks was proposed by Mr. A. C. Hazelden, and seconded by Mr. W. R. Melville, to the Rector and wardens for the use of the church and bells; also to the organist, and to the members of the local company for making the necessary arrangements.

After some touches on handbells, in which Mr. and Mrs. Hazelden, Mr. W. R. Melville, Mr. T. Upshaw and Mr. A. P. Duffield took part, the company returned to the tower, and the bells, as in the afternoon, were rung in various methods.

Tea, which was kindly provided by the Rector, was served in the Church Room, and was followed by the business meeting, at which the Rector, who presided welcomed the association to Northchurch for the first time. He hoped they would come again, and said they would be made welcome whenever they desired to come
