LOOKING TO THE FUTURE

SO much of ringers' thoughts and writings are in retrospect that the future at times receives very scant attention. It was indeed strange that at the Jasper Snowdon commemoration dinner at Rotherham the concern of the speakers was not of the achievements of the past but of the model and form future ringing should take.

The aims and objects of the great territorial Associations formed in the second half of the last century have been achieved. The Church has recognised the office of bellringer as a servant of the Church ranking in parity with the choir. In fact the dual role of ringer and chorister prevails among a large number of our brethren and sisters today. Ringers in no sense confine their work to the belfry. They are to be found in the ranks of churchwardens, licensed lay readers and parochial church councillors and Sunday School teachers, and it is an exception today to find a tower where at least one member does not hold responsibilities for other sections of church work. Yes, it can truly be said that ringers as a body are integrated into the life of the parish and form a part of the Church Militant.

To a limited degree this has always been the case. Perhaps when the Guilds and Associations were being formed leadership was frequently in the hands of the clergy, not merely from an administrative point of view but in the development and advancement of our art. Today, except in such offices as president or branch chairmen, the clergy do not lead on the practical side, and at the moment we can only recall one Guild where the Master is in Holy Orders. On the Central Council itself we have only two clerics with big responsibilities—the vice-president, understudying the duties of chairman, that in the course of years might devolve on to his shoulders, and the Rev. K. W. H. Felstead as convener of the Methods Committee.

Mr. Philip Gray, in his speech at the dinner, created rather a surprise by stating that one in six of the members of the Central Council possessed either university degrees or their equivalent from professional bodies. We do not dispute his calculations; with the expansion of university and higher forms of education since the war this is not surprising. There was a time when the old-stage ringers who were masters of the art of peal ringing regarded many from the universities as 'waistcoat pocket' ringers. Whether the change of dress of the modern young male has meant that the phrase had met with a normal death or the great contribution the universities are now making in the shaping of the advancement of the Exercise renders it unnecessary we do not know. But this fact prevails, and we hope it always will continue, that the fortunes of education, rank or position count as naught inside a belfry. It is the ability of the man (or woman) by his handling, striking and dependability in the method being rung that counts, and by that yardstick he is judged in the eyes of his fellows.

Because of this guiding principle there is a responsibility placed on the universities to produce worthy practitioners in the Exercise. We believe with the modern trend of education that from their ranks will eventually come the Guild executives and leaders in individual towers. But make no mistake, a 'Professor Dodge' will only succeed in giving leadership in the belfry if he has assimilated a profound knowledge of human nature that gets the best out of his team and presents ringing in such a form that the striving after perfection is constantly in the minds of the whole company.

A suggestion was made at Rotherham that in the re-framing of the objects of Guilds and Associations particular attention should be paid to silent towers and those where the bells are not rung properly. In tackling the problem of the silent tower the co-operation of the incumbent is essential. It is very largely through his agency that the would-be band is recruited. For a tower to succeed an experienced leader is necessary, whether from the parish or outside. There are cases, not infrequently reported in our columns, where a band has started on its own absolutely from scratch. We admire the enthusiasm and pertinacity, but with the right leader progress is much quicker. The success of the Exercise has been built up by enthusiastic leadership. There are ringers who wherever they go have the knack of building up a company, and these are the real servants of the Exercise. Thus in the problem of tackling the silent tower the selection of the leader is of paramount importance. It is not merely 'know-how' but the ability to teach and hold the keenness of the recruit in face of other distractions to win through.

Those who made the journey to Rotherham from afar could not fail to be impressed that here was a proper cradle for ringers. Young people in large numbers are in this part of Yorkshire joining our ranks, and one tower captain informed the writer that he had been able to put in his tower a band of Girl Guides for one service and Boy Scouts for another. The Sunday service ringing the writer heard was good. Sheffield Cathedral band rang for Matins Grandsire Cinques, Plain Bob Maximus, Stedman Cinques and Little Bob Maximus with hardly a trip and a perfect rhythm that brought out the majesty of the tenors. It was indeed cathedral ringing as it should be, setting a standard that keeps Yorkshire amid the foremost towers of the land. Yes, the spirit of Jasper Whitfield Snowdon is still alive.

On Sunday, October 23rd, the Freshford Church Bell-ringers' Guild, Somerset, held their annual service, conducted by the Rector, the Rev. Francis Pollard, who is also Tower Master. The secretary, Mr. J. Harvey Green, presented five new candidates. The Rector then admitted Ruth Brown as a probationer; and L/A. Royston Newman, Roger Bishton, Robert Parsons and David Dawe as members of the Guild. The bellringers' office hymn was then sung. The Guild now consists of fourteen members and two probationers.

Three octogenarians ringers took part in a quarter peal at Aughton, Lancs.—S. Flint (81 years), W. Rimmer (82) and J. Marsh (83).

Shenstone Church, which is near Lichfield, Staffs, is to have an additional two bells installed by next Easter, thus making a ring of five.

Birmingham ringers had an enjoyable weekend in South Wales on October 15/16th, with peals of Bristol Surprise at Usk and London Surprise at Ebbw Vale.

The late Mr. George Gilbert was a very good friend of the University of London Society. To his memory the Society rang a peal at Burnham, on October 22nd.

We hear that the recent trip to England by boys of Groton School, Massachusetts, had paid great dividends in terms of knowledge, rhythm and good striking. 'We will be eternally grateful to all our English friends who helped us,' writes Mr. Russell Young.

Mr. Harold B. Scholfield, of Bradford, Cathedral, had five of his young people in a half peal on October 25th. Their respective ages were 12, 12, 15, 15 and 15. It is a pleasure to see the next generation taking their places.

Owing to the difficulty of public transport to Great Hale, Lincs, where the next meeting of the Central Branch of the Lincoln Diocesan Guild is to be held on November 12th, lifts from Sleaford or Heckington will be provided for anyone who informs the secretary, Mr. S. Chambers, 64, Goldsmith Walk, Lincoln.

BELFRY GOSSIP

Ratby cum Groby, Leicestershire, are fortunate in their new Rector, the Rev. Peter R. Blackman, who is an accomplished ringer, having spent five years at Aylestone, where there is a ring of eight. He will now have two rings of bells in his charge. In a peal in honour of his institution were the president, secretary and treasurer of the Leicester Diocesan Guild, and also three others from Aylestone and one from Ratby.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. F. Denty, of Twyford.

The quarter peal rung at Southover (see page 719), was rung as a compliment to Mr. Ernest H. Fuller, on his 90th birthday.

The silencing work has been completed in Church Gresley belfry, Staffs, with wood-wool slabs and the noise is no longer overpowering to the ringers.

Faced with raising £4,000 for the rehanging of their bells, Beaminster, Dorset, Ringing Guild are holding an open day on November 19th. Details advertised next week.

The Rev. C. Holroyd Barker, who has been clerical secretary to the Society for the Arch-deaconry of Stafford for 44 years, has tendered his resignation.

Three members of the recently formed St. Stephen's Society, Westminster, took part in the quarter peal of Bob Major at their own tower on October 20th. It is understood that this is to be the first of many quarter peals to be rung on these bells.

Mr. E. Barnett writes: 'Another peal at the Curfew Tower, Windsor, was omitted from the article in the issue of October 21st—one of Grandsire Triples, by the Cumberlands, nearly 70 years ago, which was conducted by William Barron.'

Mrs. J. I. Anderson (née Scrutten) thanks ringers of Christ Church, Ealing, and neighbouring towers for their beautiful wedding gift of a chiming clock and also for the quarter peal that made her wedding day memorable.

WORCESTERSHIRE & DISTRICTS ASSOCIATION ANNUAL DINNER

NOT so many as in the past few years, but still a substantial gathering of 156 members and friends were present at the 23rd annual dinner, held at the Guildhall, Worcester, on October 8th and presided over by the Very Rev. R. L. P. Milburn, Dean of Worcester and president of the Association. He was supported by Mrs. Milburn; Mr. D. Beacham (vice-chairman) and Mrs. Beacham; Rev. R. M. Powell (Kempsey) and Mrs. Powell; Rev. M. H. Richards (St. John's, Worcester) and Mrs. Richards; Rev. H. L. Davies (Cradley); Rev. A. M. Moreton Jackson (Leigh); Mr. J. D. Johnson (general secretary) and Mrs. Johnson.

The list of apologies was rather unusual, including several who make a point of never willingly missing the event. Among these were the Master (Mr. W. B. Cartwright), who is in Canada and U.S.A. in connection with his profession. The attractive menu cards contained the caption: 'Greetings from Canada. —Here's hoping you all have a very pleasant evening.—The Master.'

Other apologies were from the Lord Bishop of the Diocese, the Right Rev. C. E. Stuart; the Revs. L. J. Birch (Chaplain) and A. W. Webb (vice-president), and Messrs. G. J. Lewis and R. R. Savory. The task of seating the gathering was again unobtrusively carried out by the three stewards—Messrs F. Hyde, T. W. Lewis and J. J. Stanier.

Following the loyal toast, the toast of 'The Worcestershire and Kindred Associations' was submitted by the Rev. R. M. Powell, who said he could not claim any vast knowledge of the ringing of bells, but he was fortunate in having a parish with a loyal band of ringers and he was grateful for them. He spoke in praise of the Association for all the reforms they had brought about and congratulated them on their great work. Concluding, he felt that their heartfelt sympathy would go out, that evening, to their Chaplain, the Rev. L. J. Birch, and to Mrs. Birch, in their recent loss through the tragic death of their son.

THE FOCAL POINT

Responding, Mr. Hugh Neill extended a welcome to visitors from no less than 10 counties and also said how gratified they were to see so many clergy present. He himself was especially grateful to the Rev. M. H. Richards, at whose church he had the privilege of teaching to ring a young band of scholars from King's School. Personally, he felt that Worcester should be the focal point of the Association and the standard of ringing in the city reflect the health of the organisation. Through lack of practice this year, things had not gone quite according to plan, but the lapse was only temporary and they were now returning to normal. The attendance, however, that evening reflected the enthusiasm in the Association, and a proof that it was still going strong.

The toast of 'The Chairman' was proposed by Mr. D. Beacham, who reminded the gathering that it was in the unavoidable absence of the Master that he had this honour, as vice-chairman, an honour accorded to him as being representative of the younger generation.

The Dean, in reply, remarked on the number of young ringers present, and how agreeable it was to see young and fresh faces year by year. 'I can't help reflecting,' he continued, 'how your bells ring out, year by year, the course of human life and I think this is a very significant and happy fact. It is with a feeling of pride that I stand before you and pay tribute for your devotion to a difficult and really worthwhile art in which you are highly skilled.'

After the toast list a course of Grandsire Caters was rung on handbells by members of the Hinton-on-the-Green band: Miss V. Barnes 1-2, W. J. Newman 3-4, Mrs. J. Thomas 5-6, J. D. Johnson 7-8, Mrs. P. Harris 9-10. With the addition of R. Newman, the same band, with one bell each, rang 120 Grandsire Doubles by changing places. This caused no little amusement to the company, and quite a surprise to the band, for the fact that it came into rounds.

An excellent musical entertainment was provided by Henry Hall and his party and the evening concluded with 'Auld Lang Syne' and the national anthem. J.D.J.

SERVANTS OF THE EXERCISE — No. 45

MR. HAROLD CHANT
Yorkshire Association

It is to Mr. Harold Chant, of Wakefield, that the Exercise is indebted for introducing to it that amusing if elusive character 'The Professor,' whose thirst for knowledge and information seems to be insatiable. The provocative utterances of this gentleman have aroused much interest and discussion, up and down the country, and the general result is stimulating. There is, of course, a fringe of superior folk who do not approve the treatment of a serious subject in such a lighthearted manner, but it does us all good to have a touch of humour introduced into our reading, and most of us are grateful to Harold Chant for bringing 'the Professor' into our circle.

Harold was born at Darnall, Sheffield, in 1910, and obtained his education the hard way in technical colleges at Doncaster, Lincoln and Wakefield. He was at one time a member of the W.E.A., attending their lectures and courses. He learned to ring at Felkirk, when he was 10 years old, and rang his first peal (Bob Minor) at the same place in 1927. He became a Minor enthusiast, and of his 180 peals, 40 of which he conducted, over 100 have been peals of Minor. Of these, only six have been in less than 7 methods.

His other peals have ranged from Minor to Maximus on tower bells, and Minor to Royal on handbells. He was one of the band at Felkirk which, in 1929, rang no less than 252 extents of Minor in 252 methods. In 1931 he took part in a peal of 10,800 Surprise Minor in 15 methods at Rotherham, which he believes is the longest length of Surprise Minor yet rung. He learned much of his 'theory' from Mr. George Lewis, and has contributed many useful articles to the pages of this paper, including 'Random thoughts on Bob Major and T.B. Minor,' 'Modification of the half lead system of extracting false course heads,' 'History of the Barnsley and District Society,' etc., etc.

Always in the forefront in preaching the gospel of good striking, his services are in great demand as a judge in ringing contests in the North and Midlands, and he has established a great reputation for his fairness. He has been treasurer of the Barnsley and District Society for 30 years; Ringing Master of the Southern District, Yorks Association, for 20 years, and served on the Central Council from 1947 to 1951.

His other hobbies are chess and music. In the former he has played for four years in inter-county tournaments and so far has an unbeaten record. In music, he holds the Special Certificate of the Royal Schools of Music. He contributes a chess column in the West Yorks Teachers' Magazine, and Mrs. Chant does the music reviews in the same paper. By profession, Harold is in the building trade. He was in the R.A.F. for 3½ years, as an engine fitter. He is a family man, having three children, Michael, 15½ (who stubbornly refuses to learn to ring), Helen, 9½, and Susan, 1½. Mrs. Chant is a teacher by profession, and Harold is loud in his praise of her patience in putting up both with him and his ringing for so long.

There is a lot more we could say about Harold, if only space permitted—but this we will say, his sound common sense and his inexhaustible supply of good humour have endeared him to all his friends, and particularly to the readers of this paper.

JAFUS.

FOUR PEALS OF SURPRISE IN ONE DAY

An attempt to create a new record by ringing five peals of Surprise Major, in five different towers, with five conductors, nearly came off on October 15th. Four peals had been duly rung and with only six courses of Yorkshire to finish a miscall foiled us. Arrangements for the towers were very ably carried out by Mr. Geoff Dodd and a strong band was assembled together. On Friday evening, October 14th, six of us stayed at the Old Mill Hotel, Aldermaston. A start was made at Aldermaston, at 3 a.m., for Cambridge, with bells fully muffled. Two of the local atomic guards wondered why the bells were sounding so early! Breakfast was served at the Old Mill, at 6.10 a.m., by Mrs. E. Arlott, whose husband used to be the local ringers' captain.

A short run brought us to Stratfield Mortimer, where the bells were already up, thanks to Mrs. A. Cowdry and Mr. J. Taylor. We commenced ringing at 7.10 a.m. and Rutland was duly brought round. Before starting at Thatcham, we had time for a short snack, and slight delay was experienced in the tower through finding two clappers still tied after practice. An excellent peal of Lincolnshire was scored, starting at 11.15 a.m.

By this time we were all ready for lunch, before continuing to Bucklebury, where we were met by Mr. A. Hawkins. It was a sad reminder that last time we came here on September 20th, 1958, we were entertained to coffee by the late Miss Stella Davis. Superlative was duly brought round, starting at 3.12 p.m. To save time, we had our tea (no drinks!), in the form of sandwiches, on our way to Highclere, and starting at 7.18 p.m., all felt fit and confident that we should score No. 5. However, after 2 hours of Yorkshire a miscall was a big disappointment. It certainly shows that progress today demands a high standard, when a band is disappointed with only ringing four peals!

However, thanks to the very generous hospitality of the local Rector, the Rev. T. Lewis, and his wife, we soon cheered up, and were glad to be sitting down round a cosy fire, eating sandwiches and drinking beer (the first all day!). Mr. G. B. Evans, a local ringer, also played back a tape recording of our ringing.

Special mention must be made of the excellent ringing of Mr. Reg Rex, one of our very active one-armed ringers. He would have been quite happy to have started again, after 13 hours 45 minutes ringing and over 24,000 changes behind him!

Grateful thanks are extended to all the local clergy for kindly allowing the attempts, and especially to Dr. R. Payne, of Aldermaston. Also to Mr. E. J. Munday, for providing the necessary transport, and Malcolm Cloke's very useful motor cycle. It is hoped to have another attempt in the New Year.

A. P. C.

WOOD GREEN, LONDON.—On Oct. 9th, 1,260 Doubles (Reverse Canterbury, St. Simon's, St. Martin's and Plain Bob); Miss M. Morrison (first quarter) 1, Miss J. Spreadbury (first in more than one method) 2, Miss W. Whitaker (first in more than one method) 3, A. Spreadbury (first in more than one method as cond.) 4, T. Bailey 5, W. Vince 6. For Harvest Thanksgiving and as a compliment to the tenor ringer on becoming a grandfather.

Controversy At Durham & Newcastle Annual Meeting

THE Durham and Newcastle Diocesan Association acknowledges its dual allegiance by holding its annual meeting alternately in the two dioceses. This year it was the turn of the younger diocese and the meeting was held in Newcastle, on October 1st. Ringing was available in the morning at Gosforth, and in the afternoon at Jesmond, Fenham and Newcastle Cathedral.

The service was held in Newcastle Cathedral. The Provost, the Very Rev. N. M. Kennaby, conducted the service and gave the address. He said that the bells today took on the role that had been given to the silver trumpets in the lesson from the book of Numbers and were used for calling together the 'congregation'. The 'congregation' in that context embraced the whole of Israel—the people of God. So today the bells call to all the people of God—to all who have been baptised—but as with Christ's call of old some respond and some do not. Mr. J. L. Keen played the organ and the collection for the Bell Restoration Fund amounted to £4 7s. 8d.

The tea and business meeting were held in the vestry of St. John's, where the catering was most efficiently carried out by members of St. John's Drama Society. This arrangement provided a first class meal at a reduced price for the ringers, while raising funds for the Drama Society through the voluntary labours of its members.

NEW PEAK IN PEAL RINGING

The president, Mr. T. Cooke, welcomed the company of almost 80 and expressed appreciation of the warmth of the welcome that he had received in visiting the districts. The various reports on the year's work were presented and adopted. In these the secretary reported that meetings had been well supported and that peal ringing, which had reached a new peak, was largely accounted for by a handful of ringers. The area had had an unusual influx of visitors during the year. The treasurer reported an increase in the balance in hand from £108 14s. 11d. to £123 4s. 7d., in which the general fund had gone from £77 13s. 3d. to £87 7s. 11d., but he warned members of forthcoming heavy demands for printing.

The peal report showed that 56 peals had been rung in 27 towers with one on handbells. Of the 71 ringers taking part, 11 scored their first peal but no new conductor had appeared. Leading peal ringers were J. A. Ainsworth 42, E. N. Harrison 36, G. S. Deas 35 and J. E. Anderson 27. There were 15 conductors but J. A. Ainsworth's 24 was well ahead of all the others.

SCHEME OF INSTRUCTION

Last year the office of Ringing Master was created and the meeting heard a report of the first year's efforts directed towards the formulation of an efficient scheme of instruction for the Association. The problems had been discussed by a panel and a sub-committee had been entrusted with formulation of some details. Alongside the attempts at an organised scheme many individual efforts had done valuable work, especially in ending the long silence that had prevailed at St. Peter's, Jarrow.

The trustees were able to report that the property of the Association was safe and sound.

The election of officers saw all the retiring officers re-elected, thus making the list for 1960-61 as follows: President, Mr. T. Cooke; honorary treasurer, Mr. F. Ainsley; honorary secretary and editorial secretary, Mr. D. A. Bayles; honorary auditor, Mr. J. F. Bird; Ringing Master, Mr. K. Arthur; trustees, Messrs. W. N. Park and N. I. Wright.

District officers.—Northern: Mr. J. A. Ainsworth (vice-president), Mr. G. S. Deas (honorary secretary); Southern: Mr. F. W. Cooke and Mr. E. P. Rock; Eastern: Mr.

C. N. Lea and Mr. W. F. Sheraton; Western: Mr. K. W. Cheeseman and Mr. C. T. Lamb. Peal referees: Messrs D. A. Bayles, W. J. Davidson, R. Park and W. N. Park.

VOLUNTARY PEAL LEVY

Mr. J. A. Ainsworth had submitted a motion calling for the institution of a peal levy of 6d. per rope to be incorporated in the rules. The general feeling was in sympathy with the aim of raising more money from those who caused the increased printing costs, but most disagreed with the motion as it stood and Mr. Ainsworth withdrew the original motion substituting an appeal for voluntary contributions from peal bands. This was adopted and will be printed in the annual reports.

Meetings for 1961 were arranged as follows: Social function, Chester-le-Street, January 6th; half-yearly meeting, Whitley Bay, May 13th; annual meeting, Sunderland, September 30th.

Fifteen new members were elected, including six from Jarrow, and eight belfry elections were ratified.

PEAL SECRETARY RESIGNS

The peal report for 1958-59, which had been adopted at the A.G.M., 1959, was raised again and much discussion took place on the question of whether the peal rung at Nortoft, Yorks, and which would be credited by the Central Council to the Yorkshire Association only, should be included in the Durham and Newcastle records. A motion to include it was eventually carried by 27 votes to 18.

Mr. Bayles then announced that cool and careful consideration of this possibility had led him to the conclusion that this new policy would leave him no option but to resign forthwith as peal secretary and as peal referee. He had not mentioned this inside or outside of the debate lest he be accused of trying to 'hold a pistol to their heads' but he formally resigned those two appointments.

The president, after a vote expressing full confidence in Mr. Bayles as peal secretary, asked him to reconsider his decision. Mr. Bayles replied that he was not prepared to append his signature to any peal report which violated his principles and therefore there could be no question of withdrawing his resignation, but he was prepared to continue for a short time in order to tie up the loose ends and publish the annual report for 1959-60, wherein the peal records would be confined to the peal report for 1959-60 presented and adopted at that meeting.

There was no further business and the members were able to spend a short time in the belfries of Newcastle Cathedral and St. Mary's, Gateshead, before ringing ended for the day.

OXFORD DIOCESAN GUILD

The quarterly meeting of the Banbury and District Branch was held at Sandford St. Martin, on October 22nd, about 40 members and friends being present. The proceedings were marred by the sudden illness of the incumbent, the Rev. W. F. Malcolm, who had been taken to hospital earlier in the day, but that very good friend of ringers, the Rev. K. G. Packard, came at short notice from Lower Heyford and conducted the service. At the business meeting a sub-committee was appointed to make arrangements for the annual dinner of the branch on January 21st, and the next meeting was fixed for January 14th, at Swalcliffe, with ringing at Tadmarton, after tea.

PENARTH, GLAM.—On Oct. 2nd, 1,260 Doubles (Plain Bob and Grandsire); M. Chiplin 1, Miss R. Harding 2, W. J. Palmer 3, E. J. R. Hartley (cond.) 4, A. F. R. Hartley 5, C. P. Bristow 6. For Harvest Festival Evensong.

NEWS FROM AUSTRALIA

Three cars containing 12 ringers from four different Sydney towers journeyed to Maitland on October 15th, to ring during a fete in St. Paul's Church grounds. Five quarters were scored over the week-end, two on tower bells and three on handbells.

Highlights of the trip were the Saturday night tea provided by local ringers; the night at the Belmore Hotel, during which a 'Ricky Kate' school went on to 2.45 a.m.; a 10-mile drive for a milk-shake and prawns at Hexham; the merry-go-round rides at the fete; ascending the vertical ladders to the top of the campanile of St. Paul's; and the hot sun on their backs during the 123 miles (four hours) run home after a thoroughly enjoyable two days.

The two quarter peals on the bells of St. Paul's Church, on October 15th, were 1,260 Doubles (Grandsire and Plain Bob); Robert C. Wood (first quarter) 1. W. D. Watson (cond.) 2. J. S. Hedges 3. R. L. Clark 4. J. F. Hammond 5. J. Y. Seymour 6. Also 1,260 Plain Bob Doubles; Linden R. Langshaw (first tower bell quarter) 1, Graeme A. J. Langshaw (first tower bell quarter) 2, Audrey E. Peters 3, Wendy A. Nichols 4, Thomas W. Goodyer (cond.) 5, John Y. Seymour 6.

While the second quarter was in progress a quarter 'in hand' of Doubles was rung in the church by J. J. Cummins 1-2, W. D. Watson (cond.) 3-4, J. F. Hammond (first on handbells) 5-6. At the end of this, about 9.50 p.m., a party was held in the belfry before going back to the hotel.

In the church porch on the Sunday, 1,344 Plain Bob Major was rung by J. J. Cummins 1-2, Margaret E. Goodyer 3-4, T. W. Goodyer (cond.) 5-6, W. D. Watson 7-8. A further quarter attempted on the Sunday, collapsed. A warm 'Thank you' goes to Maitland people for such a feast of bellringing.

BATH AND WELLS DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

Chew Deanery Branch

The quarterly meeting was held at Nailsea, on October 15th. Ringing preceded the Association form of service, which was conducted by the Rector, Rev. E. Guy Hammond, and some 40 members and friends then enjoyed an excellent tea prepared by the Nailsea lady members.

The Rector took the chair at the business meeting which followed tea and new members were elected from Portbury, Portishead and Long Ashton, also one lapsed member from Winford was re-elected. It was decided that, provided permission was forthcoming, the annual meeting should be held at Backwell on the first Saturday in December, with Yatton as an alternative, should it prove difficult to arrange tea at Backwell. The practice meeting for November was fixed for Kingston Seymour.

The usual votes of thanks to all who had contributed to such an enjoyable meeting concluded proceedings.

CORPORATE COMMUNION

Some 19 members attended the half-yearly Corporate Communion at Barrow Gurney, on October 23rd, and this pleasant octave was set ringing soon after 7 a.m. The ringers attended the Parish Communion at which the celebrant was the Vicar, Canon J. B. Sturdy, and those who attended are grateful to both the Vicar and the authorities at the adjoining Barrow Court, now a teachers' training college, for providing breakfast for the party.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

COLLEGE YOUTHS' PEAL AT DERBY

Dear Sir.—As the person largely responsible for writing the report of Wilfred Williams' 1960 Peal Tour, I should like to make some observations in reply to the letter under the above heading from Mr. G. A. Halls.

The paragraph concerning the Derby Cathedral peal does not conform to the copy supplied by me. It has been subjected to the editorial blue pencil, and does not read that it was the first ever of Spliced Surprise Royal, containing all the work for each bell, etc., as was intended. Instead, it states that it was 'the first time in this church.'

I was not at Derby when the peal was rung and compiled my notes from details given me verbally. Unfortunately, those original notes were accidentally destroyed, and I was faced with the task of writing the whole account from memory. Being somewhat pre-College Youth I thought it fitting that this 'first' should be recorded for the College Youths. Perhaps, however, it was tactless of me to refer to them as the premier ringing society. No doubt many people, including Mr. Halls, disagree with this expressed opinion, and, of course, they are perfectly entitled to.

Finally, I should like to point out to Mr. Halls that I am entirely responsible for the composition, ideas and opinions expressed in this particular report. It was never my intention to offer any slight or insult to the Derbyshire Association. If and when an apology becomes necessary I shall gladly proffer it to the officers of the association. I feel, however, that Mr. Halls has launched rather impetuously into print without true knowledge of the facts.—Yours faithfully,

DONALD G. CLIFT.

Harrow, Middlesex.

Dear Sir.—Mr. Gordon Halls should have made himself more familiar with tour history before rushing into print. He would then have known that a College Youth peal attempt has been arranged on most of my tours during recent years. There was, therefore, no departure from usual custom, and nothing unique in ringing the Derby peal for that Society. He is also quite wrong in stating that it was the only peal not rung for the appropriate territorial association. The peal at Staindrop in County Durham was rung for the Yorkshire Association and not the Durham and Newcastle.

Mr. Halls makes an even greater mistake by assuming that a professionally written volume like the College Youths' peal book is passed round. It would not surprise me to learn that he is firing bullets made by a well known member of the Ancient Society and the Derbyshire Association.—Yours faithfully,

WILFRED WILLIAMS.

London.

Dear Sir.—We fear that Mr. G. Halls is a little piqued because the College Youths will not admit him into their Society. Obviously Mr. Williams did not intend to insult the Derbyshire Association; if he had the peal would have been rung for the South Derbyshire and North Leicestershire Association.—Yours faithfully,

D. R. CARLISLE.

WINDSOR CASTLE BELLS

Dear Sir.—Apropos the account of Windsor Castle Curfew bells, one wonders what is the 'inside story' of the 1650 augmentation, for story there must be, when one considers the set up.

Charles Stuart had been sent to the scaffold twelve months before, his son was a fugitive and 'Old Noll' firmly established as Protector of the English Republic, yet somebody has sufficient 'pull' somewhere to carry through an extensive bell restoration in a Church of England building in an ex-royal residence, all of the last three, bells, churches and royal palaces, absolute anathema to the powers that be and they in the first flush of authority. Perhaps Mr. Sharpe would like to enlighten us, if possible, as to how it was done.—Sincerely,

W. E. BOX.

Harborne, Birmingham.

P.S.—I should be pleased to know from whom a copy of 'Church Bells of Berkshire, Part 17,' containing the Windsor Castle account, can be obtained.—W. E. B.

GRATEFULLY ACKNOWLEDGED

Dear Sir.—The list of tower names, which appear week by week under 'Gratefully Acknowledged,' is one item in 'The Ringing World' we would like to see go on for ever, and may it grow even longer!

Looking through the last ten issues of the 'R.W.', commencing August 12th-October 14th, I find some very interesting information about peals, quarter peals, etc., and the ringers who have partaken in these performances, named in the 'G. Ack.'

Looking at the quarter peals, etc., I found that out of 495 published 236 subscribed to 'G. Ack.' and were responsible for £33 13s. 11d., the details being:

Bells	Total	'G. Ack.'	£	s.	d.
10	23	14	2	8	0
8	165	68	10	2	3
5-6	303	150	20	14	2
4	4	4		9	6
	495	236	33	13	11

Out of 423 peals published, other than tours, etc., I found that 59 were named in 'G. Ack.', these being responsible for £11 7s. 0d.:

Bells	Total	'G. Ack.'	£	s.	d.
12	11	nil.	—	—	—
10	31	3		14	0
8	167	23	5	1	0
5-6	214	33	5	12	0
	423	59	11	7	0

Those peals published under tours, week-ends, etc., total 97, and were responsible for £1 8s. One tour subscribed £1, total 12 peals, and a 'week-end' and 3 peals 8s.

The whole 520 peals occupied 45 pages and the 495 quarters, etc., less than 10 pages. The 214 peals under 5-6 bells include 15 handbell peals.

The Putney band lead the quarter peals, and a footnote under a Wentworth quarter told us that a proposed quarter at Wortley was called off owing to heavy rain!

H. E. TAYLOR.

THANK YOU, CORNWALL

Dear Sir.—Having just returned from a short holiday in 'The Delectable Duchy' (the first many years), may I through the courtesy of 'The Ringing World' say a big 'Thank you' to all those ringers who made me so very welcome. Their unfailing kindness was very much appreciated.—Yours sincerely,

E. T. P. FIELD.

Knole, Langport, Somerset.

TWO WHITE 'GHOSTS'

When the young band descended Church Gresley belfry, recently, an excited turmoil floated up to the ringing chamber.

Bluntly the Ringing Master shouted down to enquire about the fuss. The odd reply came back—'two white ghosts' were trying to break into the tower.

This brought from Mr. Derek P. Jones the obvious rejoinder not to be ridiculous, but on going down to find out for himself, the Ringing Master was staggered to find that two white strangers were in fact trying to get in and were holding the lads at bay.

They were, however, frisky peat GOATS that had strayed into the churchyard, their consciences leading them to seek refuge in the church.

MINIMUS RINGING

Dear Sir.—I was interested to read Mr. P. Amos' letter, in your issue of October 28th, as I have been thinking along somewhat similar lines re the Minimus controversy. I feel that we ringers should encourage ringing in four bell towers for the very reason stated by Mr. Amos—that the kindling of enthusiasm may one day lead to an increase to five or more bells. We have such an example in this county. In the tiny village of Leire love of ringing was bred in a four bell tower, and has resulted in the addition of two more bells. I well remember approaching the church on the night of the dedication service. It was only the sound of Plain Bob Minimus that floated out from that little tower. But what a sound! The striking was exemplary and constituted a lesson to many of us who ring on higher numbers.

I have instanced this case as an example of the potential effect of encouragement in a four bell tower. Admittedly, the question of four bell peals did not arise, but I feel we should ask ourselves—would the banning of four bell peals constitute an encouragement to a four bell tower, or not?

In conclusion, I note that according to Mr. T. C. Belton many of the four bell towers in Leicestershire are out of action, and whilst I would not dispute this statement, I do feel that in many cases a thorough examination might prove otherwise. In some towers the bell are 'apparently' unringable, and unfortunately they stay that way for various reasons. The rings of four bells at the following churches in Leicestershire are certainly ringable: Evington, Burrough-on-the-Hill, Kimcote and Peatling Magna. The tone of the last two rings (approximately 16 cwt. and 13 cwt. tenors) is beautiful, although I doubt whether either are rung regularly. Has any ringer information regarding the other Leicestershire four bell towers.—Yours faithfully,

Cosby, Leics. JOHN B. BENNETT.

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY GUILD'S PEALS

Dear Sir.—The Guild's peal total for 1959, as published in 'The Ringing World' of October 21st, was incorrect. It should read: Maximus 2 (1), Royal 6 (4), Caters 2, Major 12 (2), Triples 2, Minor 3 (1), Total 27 (8).—Yours faithfully,

HUGH BISHOP.

COMPARISONS WITH THE PAST AT SNOWDON DINNER

Problems Of Ringing In This Age

COMPARISONS were made at the 28th annual commemoration dinner to the memory of Jasper Whitfield Snowdon and past officers of the Yorkshire Association with the present age, at Rotherham, on October 22nd. Mr. Philip Gray, who replied for the guests, set before the assembly, of over 150, the need for a revision of the objects of most ringing associations.

It was an occasion when Yorkshire excelled in its hospitality. The president (the Ven. C. O. Ellison), who presided, gave a lead in friendliness. The arrangements were made by Mr. N. Chaddock and Mr. J. J. L. Gilbert and it was with great regret that the company learned of the indisposition of Mr. Gilbert. The highlight of the evening was the handbell tune ringing of the Ecclesfield handbell ringers, who by their performance must rank in the forefront of this class of entertainment.

Supporting the president and Mrs. C. O. Ellison on the top table were Bishop G. V. Gerard (Assistant Bishop of Sheffield), the Revs. Canon H. Ferraby, Canon A. King, C. A. Edwards, G. Hollis and J. K. Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. N. Chaddock, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Critchley, Mr. and Mrs. Alec Marsh, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bagot, Messrs. G. Benfield, E. Hudson, P. Gray, W. M. Barton, L. W. G. Morris and T. W. White.

The president preceded his welcome to the guests with apologies from the Archbishop of York, the Bishop of Sheffield, Mr. Frederick Sharpe, Miss Margaret Snowdon, niece of Jasper Snowdon, and Mr. A. E. Sellers.

WHO IS LOSING HIS TEMPER

Arcndeacon Ellison had a special greeting for the Rev. Gerald Hollis, who, next month, will become Vicar of Rotherham. Mentioning the presence of the editor, he said, 'I think "The Ringing World" is a most interesting paper. I am not a scientific ringer, but I am interested in the art. I start with Belfry Gossip and then turn to the correspondence page to see who is losing his temper. I don't know if bellringers are a particularly bad tempered body but some are apt to get excited. I hope, Mr. Editor, you will encourage the use of the blue pencil.'

To Mr. Ben Birkett, who will be 81 before Christmas, the oldest ringer present, there was a special round of applause. The secretary was asked to convey the company's sympathy to Mr. John Gilbert.

The Rev. C. Edwards, senior curate at Rotherham, also gave a welcome to the visitors mentioning that Rotherham was very proud of its church, with its long record of worship throughout the centuries, its choir and Mr. Chaddock and his loyal team of ringers, whose ringing was no less praise and worship.

Mr. E. A. Barnett, honorary secretary of the Central Council, submitted the toast of 'The late Jasper Whitfield Snowdon and past officers of the Yorkshire Association.' He suggested that for the benefit of the younger ringers a synopsis of Jasper Snowdon and what he did should be printed on the back of the menu card. His writings in the Snowdon series of ringing books were unrivalled, and Mrs. Turner, who was now selling these books, told him recently that she was arranging for the reprinting of one of the books.

IMPROVEMENTS

It was invidious for him to mention the past officers, many of whom were known personally to many of those present. What would they think of the Exercise today if they could be with them? They would find many things which were an improvement. One thing, in particular, was the report of the Sunday Service Ringing Committee, of which Mr. Chaddock was the convener and Mr. Gray a member. Whatever ringers of the past might have thought of Sunday service ringing, those of today consider it as vital. They were all agreed upon that, and that it created a better relationship with the clergy.

The corollary of their better relationship with the church was that they must not pride themselves that ringers of today were of a slightly better type than those of the days they were thinking about. Another thing was that public interest in their art was greater than it ever was. As secretary of the Council he was astonished at the requests he received, not only from this country, for information about ringing for articles. One he remembered was from the B.B.C. German service; another from a Swedish gentleman who was writing an article in Swedish about ringing.

There were many other things that were better; one was the elimination of the abuse of prize ringing—he knew that in that part of the country they still had ringing contests and he was not criticising them. He remembered the articles he read in 'The Bell News' about the prize ringing contests at Liversidge which began at 6 a.m. All the teams rang half a peal and the contest went on to 4 or 5 the next morning. 'Well, we are glad to say good-bye to that,' remarked the speaker.

FAULTS OF TODAY

'Some of the things we do today are, perhaps, not what they did. For instance, in the early days of your Association peals of Minor were almost always rung in seven methods, and anything less was regarded as "beyond the pale." This week's "Ringing World" contains seven peals of Plain Bob Minor. There may be very good reasons for those peals, but they are a lowering of the standard. And when we come to Minimus—well!

'Another thing is what is known as "tower grabbing." It seems rather futile rushing round the country, rushing up the belfry, raising the bells, ringing for a few minutes, lowering the bells and rushing off to another tower about three miles away.'

At a recent ringing meeting the incumbent told him that on a Bank Holiday he had refused requests from three bands for permission to ring, none of whom had had the courtesy to get in touch with him before the day. That gave ringing a bad name.

The toast was duly honoured.

GREETINGS

Mr. Wilfrid F. Moreton was entrusted with the toast of 'The Visitors' which he submitted wittily. The clerical visitors duly honoured were Bishop G. V. Gerard (Assistant Bishop of Sheffield), the Revs. C. Edwards, G. Hollis, Canon King, Canon Ferraby and J. K. Dixon.

The Hug of Affection.—Clare, of the Raving Ringers, reveals to the rest of the company outside Burmarsh Church during the recent tour of Kent where her true happiness is to be found.

Anyone attending the Central Council meeting, he said, would think Mr. Barnett had a full time job with a full time secretary. He had the latter in Mrs. Barnett, whom they were pleased to have with them. To Mr. and Mrs. Smallwood he would say his initials were 'J.F.S.' and anyone would see them in 'Jafus.' He remembered the lesson in geography Mr. Smallwood received after their peal at St. Woolos'. Monmouthshire is in England and not Wales.

In his greetings to Mr. and Mrs. Halls, of Derby, Mr. Moreton styled Mr. Halls as half a composer. He did not know whether he put in the wrongs and middles and left his assistant the homes! Associating Mr. Philip Gray's name with the toast, he said Mr. Gray spent several years in Australia and when he came back to these islands he saw ringing here in a new light. Mr. Gray collected a good deal of information for Mr. Chaddock in the Sunday Service Survey.

Mr. Philip Gray in his reply said Yorkshire made a special appeal to him in his profession as a metallurgist. He came to Yorkshire in 1948 with the Society for the University of London and stayed at Ilkley. During that week he rang his first peal of London Surprise in Jasper Snowdon's tower, which was the first peal of London by a university band.

INFLUENCE OF UNIVERSITIES

One of the features since the war had been the advance of ringing by the universities, and he was very proud of his position as president of the University of London Society. Before the war there were two university societies; today there were 15 and he estimated that there were now twice as many university peals rung. Today one in six of the Central Council members had university degrees or their equivalent. There were also a great many ringers today who had been to secondary schools. Ringers today were of a very different type from those Jasper Snowdon knew. If this type of person did not have some impact on ringing after the expensive education they had had, which they as rate-payers had paid for, then it was a waste of public money.

The world of ringing that Jasper Snowdon knew was very different from today. It was in his day that the associations were created and later the Central Council. It was one of the greatest events in the history of ringing in forming associations, like the Yorkshire. There was not a single tower in the British Isles that could not be a member of a society and take a part in formulating ringing.

If they looked at their rule book they would find amongst the objects that their association existed for the promotion of ringing as Church work, belfry reform and the promotion of scientific ringing. Today the status of the ringer was very much higher than it was then and now practically all ringers were recognised as Church workers. Belfry reform really meant reforming the ringers. It was a very urgent topic then. When they saw some of the rules put up in belfries and fines for drinking, smoking and swearing, they smiled, but they were a very necessary thing in the towers of those days.

NEW SENSE OF PURPOSE

He thought those original aims had been achieved and that their association had lost some of their sense of purpose. It might sound presumptuous but they should ask. 'Where do we go from here?' There were still far too many towers where the bells were not rung or not rung in a fitting way for Sunday service, and too many where the care and maintenance was at fault. They could not be satisfied with this and as an association they must take more responsibility and try to do something. How could inefficient towers learn? How could they put these things right? There were the Jasper Snowdon books but not everybody could learn from books. Those who had been taught by skilful ringers knew that this was not so. Should they not devote their time on Saturday afternoons to belfry towers with a struggling band? Should they not run special courses of instruction in towers, where they wanted to learn? Could they not improve on their methods of teaching change ringing? Did they make sure that all the clergy knew they existed and who their officers were? When they elected new officers did they send the names to the Archdeacon or Rural Deans?

They had that day a very fine organist, and they reached a point when they should ask where did they go from here. He would like to see added to their aims and objects the promotion of bells and knowledge of the teaching of ringing.

The chairman said that the Yorkshire Association had several of the points raised by Mr. Gray under consideration. They were revising their objects and many of these would be included.

The evening concluded with a vote of thanks to the president, proposed by Mr. W. M. Barton.

A well-struck course of Caters was rung by W. E. Critchley 1-2, W. M. Barton 3-4, L. W. G. Morris 5-6, W. F. Moreton 7-8, N. Chaddock 9-10.

CHESTER DIOCESAN GUILD ANNUAL DINNER

THE annual dinner of the Chester Diocesan Guild was held at the Queen Hotel, Chester, on October 8th, when a company of 139 sat down. The guests were the Dean of Chester (the Very Rev. M. McCausland Gibbs) and the Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Lloyd.

After the loyal toast had been drunk the proceedings commenced by the Dean proposing the toast of 'The Chester Diocesan Guild.' In the course of a lively speech he referred to his association with the Cathedral of St. George, Cape Town, during which time the old tower had been taken down and the bells were outside the tower. On arrival in Chester he was welcomed by the bells and very much appreciated it but he found later that he received, as Dean, a bill for the ringing!

He went on to refer to the many different occasions on which bells are rung, in times of joy and in time of sorrow, and he trusted that the sound of the bells summoning people to the worship of God would always be heard. He considered bell ringing to be one of the world's great arts and wished the Guild continued success and prosperity.

The Master of the Guild, Mr. J. W. Clarke, replied and mentioned that this year's festival had been recorded on tape, including the Lord Bishop's address and that this tape would be placed in the Guild library. He followed this with many humorous stories and concluded by assuring the guests that the Guild was advancing and doing well.

The toast of 'Church and State' was entrusted to Mr. C. W. Lawton, who dwelt on the part the Church has played in the life of the country and how the State has gradually taken over its place in education, law, hospitals, etc. Nevertheless, the Church had still a great part to play in the life of the State and he felt that they could be bonded together more closely than they had been in the past, but the Church's intention and leadership must be clear.

CHOOSING A HOUSE

The reply was given by the Rev. J. M. Lloyd, who made the point that one of the few things the State did in the Church was to appoint the Dean and he thought all would agree that they had a good one. He went on to mention how when faced with complaints about the ringing of the bells in a previous parish he had suggested that it was just as unwise to choose a house near a church (if you did not like bells) as to choose one near the gas works. He trusted that Church and State would continue to co-operate for a long time to come.

Mr. Denis Mottershead, in proposing the toast of 'Our Guests and the Ladies,' welcomed them in the name of the Guild and said that meeting together as a Guild gave opportunity for the interchange of ideas and the formation of friendships and taught them to work as a team, not only in the Guild but throughout the country. His speech was liberally sprinkled with quotations from the works of Robert Burns and it would appear the Burns philosophy would repay study by more ringers.

Mrs. Millington in her reply said how delightful it was to be entertained instead of as is usually the case of the ladies doing the entertaining. She mentioned the great interest there was in handbell ringing in the Women's Institutes, a remark which some present thought rather dangerous since it might mean a reversal of the usual roles, i.e. husband waiting patiently (?) for the arrival home of his wife from a bellringing practice. She was grateful for the courtesy of the belfry and on behalf of the lesser creatures she was pleased to see so many learning to ring and forming great friendship.

During the course of the entertainment songs were given by Mr. N. A. Parry and Dr. I. B. Terret and Mrs. A. Potts provided musical interludes. Handbell ringing comprised Grandshire Caters and Triples, Bob Major and Oxford Treble Bob Major and was arranged by the Deputy Master, Mr. J. Worth.

THREE SHIRES TOUR BY BEDFORDSHIRE RINGERS

On October 8th some 15 keen members of the Bedfordshire Association and their friends arose early, except for the organiser, who set up a new world record by being in the coach four minutes after rising from his slumbers! However, we were on time when we stopped at Brackley for refreshment and for one member to have a much-needed shave! We arrived at Middleton Cheney, and the heavy and melodious bells were soon being put through their paces. A pleasant walk from the main road brought us to the Parish Church of Great Tew, where it was necessary to light the oil lamps to enable us to see to ring. After a good ring and a look round this interesting church, we were soon wending our way to Witney. A very pleasant three-quarters-of-an-hour was spent here and, after a good ring down, we travelled to Burford, where lunch awaited us.

Following lunch, we continued our journey to Moreton-in-the-Marsh, where the bells were a joy to ring. On arrival at Pershore the 'cage' was viewed with awe by some, but the undaunted soon had this lovely eight ringing to a touch of Stedman. The recent rehanging here has greatly improved the handling, and the magnificent tonal qualities were a rich reward for the hazardous ascent.

A very satisfying tea was taken in the picturesque village of Broadway, after which we travelled to the fine eight at Bloxham. All voted these the best bells of the day, and although time was short, good use was made of this fine octave. The last tower was St. John's, Wicken, where some of the local band joined us. Home was reached at 11.30.

Ringings throughout the day ranged from rounds to Cambridge Major and, as should be the first consideration on all outings, the striking was good. Our thanks to those who met us and allowed us to ring, and especially Keith Fleming for his efficient arrangements—even though he does need a new alarm clock!

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION Lewisham District

Over sixty members and friends met at St. Mary's, Woolwich, for the annual meeting of the Lewisham District on October 22nd. The eight bells were kept going during the afternoon and evening under the able guidance of Mr. I. H. Oram, District Ringing Master.

The service was conducted by the Rector, the Rev. N. Stacey; Mr. Martin, local ringer, played the organ; and the lesson was read by Mr. E. Barnett.

An excellent tea was followed by a rapid business meeting. In twelve and a half minutes, and in addition to the usual business, the Ringing Master was re-elected to serve for the following year; Miss Cannon was re-elected and Miss Inman elected to serve as district representatives; and the secretary was re-elected. The meeting closed with a hearty vote of thanks to the Rector for his inspired and uplifting address, his warm welcome and his expeditious chairmanship of the meeting.

THE MAJOR HESSE WEEK-END

The twelfth annual gathering to honour the memory of the late Major J. H. B. Hesse was held at Wington on October 22nd. An unsuccessful peal attempt at Clevedon was made on the Friday evening, but a peal of Kent Treble Bob Royal was rung on the noble ten at Wington on the Saturday afternoon.

After the Wington peal, Mrs. Hesse entertained the party to tea for which she was thanked on behalf of those present by Mr. H. J. Sanger. Those present were: the Rev. Bernard Lee (Rector of Wington), Mr. and Mrs. H. Knight, Messrs. J. Brain, L. Derrick, H. Freeborn, D. Hoare, M. Horseman, W. Kingcott, A. Pink, G. Prescott, V. Roberts, G. Salmon, A. Sanger and H. Sanger.

REV. MALCOLM STRACHAN

With regret we learn that the Rev. Malcolm Strachan, who took over as Ringing Master from Mr. Warren Sturgis at Groton School, Massachusetts, has died suddenly. A good and enthusiastic ringer he was wholly responsible for the survival of the Exercise at Groton until a heart attack three years ago. Among his pupils was Mr. Russell Young, who recently toured England.

MR. JAMES PARKER

The passing of Mr. James Parker at the age of 94, recorded in our last issue, recalls many memories of the days when bellringing was not quite so simple as it is now. Bands of ringers in advanced methods were few and far between and means of transport difficult.

James Parker was born at Pulborough, Sussex, and commenced his ringing at Charlwood, Surrey. After leaving Charlwood he went to Storrington, Sussex, where he taught the call-change band to ring Doubles. When he was married in 1888, the ringers for the first time rang 120 Grandsire Doubles without his assistance. Later he went to Crawley, Sussex, where, when he joined the band, Grandsire Triples was the top method, and when he left, seven or eight years later, the band, under his tuition, had progressed to London Surprise Major. His greatest achievement there, of which he was justly proud, was the record length of Superlative Surprise Major of 9,312 changes, which he conducted. This record was held for 14 years.

In 1897 he moved to London and soon joined the Society of Royal Cumberland Youths and was closely associated with Henry Dains. He was Master of the Cumberland Youths in the early part of the century. When he moved to Edmonton, in 1900, he became Master of the Parish Church ringers and remained so until 1940. During that time he seldom missed Sunday service ringing, which he considered the most important duty of a ringer.

He represented the Sussex County Association on the Central Council from 1894 to 1896 and later the Society of Royal Cumberland Youths from 1897 to 1899 and from 1906 to 1947 when he retired to make way for a younger man.

Of his three children, two sons and one daughter, Edith, the last named, was the only one to take up ringing seriously, and doubtless to say he followed her career with great pride.

He had rung 365 peals from Minor to Maximus, of which six were handbells. His last peal was at Bradford Cathedral, in 1939.

The cremation service took place at Norwich and the service was conducted by the Rev. Giles Galley.

AN APPRECIATION

James Parker did much good work for the Middlesex County Association and London Diocesan Guild. He was a member from its formation by a union of the Middlesex Association and the South and West Middlesex Guild in 1897, and was one of those forming the first Central Committee, so that without doubt he was amongst those who formed the rules of the present Association, rules which ever since have not been materially altered.

At All Saints', Edmonton, where for many years he was captain of the ringers, he gained the respect of a loyal and progressive band—a local band which could at that time compete with any other in the country. The striking was of a high standard and no visitors were necessary in the ringing on Sundays and practice evenings of touches of Spiced Surprise Major in up to eight methods—truly pioneer work.

James Parker conducted the fourth peal for the Association—Superlative Surprise Major, at Southgate, in 1897—and this method could have been his favourite for he conducted the then longest length at Crawley, Sussex, and also rang a course at the farewell gathering at Edmonton in 1942, when he left to reside near Great Yarmouth. Another commendable tribute, to him, was, of course, the introduction to the belfry of his daughter, Edith K., who apart from her quite outstanding performances on tower bells and on handbells was a foundation member of the Ladies' Guild.

We owe to James Parker, a great deal for his successful work and high endeavour and the Exercise would benefit with more like him.
